COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Please note elsewhere in this paper a "Notice of Hearing for Relocation of Elm St." to be held Oct. 4th at 2 p. m.

Please note there is no proposed change on that part of Elm St. from Railroad St. to Summer Street. There is a slight change of the right of way from Summer St. to Main St. If this change is approved by the Selectmen at the Tuesday hearing, it will then come before the Town at a special meeting to be held in the very near future.

The proposed change will allow the stone wall on the Westerly side of Elm Street to be considered as the line of right of way. The Town will deed to Gould Academy the land now occupied by the wall.

The Town will receive from Gould an equal amount of land on the Easterly side of Elm St. a narrow strip ranging from one to about eight feet in width. The Town will lose none of the street as it is now used and will gain the narrow strip just mentioned, together with the sum of $1,500, which may be used as the Town directs.

Cold weather is just around the corner, the teachers tell me they have some children in school who will need clothing and foot wear soon. If you have something unused in your homes we will be very glad to have you bring it to the Town Office and we will help pass it along.

If the employees of the Newton mill, recently burned, are interested in having a representative of the Unemployment Office in Bethel Tuesday Oct. 4th, please call 92.

O. T. Rozelle

MESC RULES THAT POWER SAWS ARE "TOOLS OF TRADE" FOR TAX PURPOSES

The Maine Employment Security Commission, with the Internal Revenue Service concurring, has adopted the following policy, effective as of Oct. 1, 1955:

"It is the policy of the Maine Employment Security Commission that power saws are to be deemed a 'tool of the trade' accordingly, taxes should be paid on the gross amount paid the individual for his services. Any arrangement with the worker as to power saw use is incidental to operations of the employer."

This has been included in an informational letter sent to all employers engaged in woods operations, together with a similar ruling of the Internal Revenue Service.

This new policy means that employers should no longer allocate a portion of the wages paid as being attributable to the hire of the saw but should report the entire amount as wages and pay the withholding tax on that amount.

ideas from other editors

From the Catkill Mountain Star, Saugerties, New York: Getting acquainted with and understanding some of the many problems the publisher and editor of your local newspaper is the best way to establish effective press relations. Like all business places, your newspaper is run by people, and to deal harmoniously with them you should be familiar with their objectives, rules and routine.

Deciding what to publish is one of your editor's most important functions. His decision as to what news to use depends on three facts: 1. What is his opinion constitutes news. 2. What kind of news the public, who buys his papers, like to read. 3. Whether the articles submitted smack of libel.

If you believe you have a story or a news item that should be printed, your editor will be glad to talk with you about it. Your editor appreciates the cooperation of the public, whether personal news or news of community projects. In the final analysis, the news printed in your local paper is a history of the area in which you live, work, worship and play and will be read and referred to by future generations.

From the Independent Record, Wildwood, N. J.: If ants were provided with a concrete ant hill, what would they do? In all probability they would start building a regular ant hill next to the concrete one. Ants would perish without castles to build.

Socialism is much like the hypothetical concrete ant hill. It shouts Utopia and its sponsors promise a life of security. But it has in the past torn down people's accumulated savings. What if socialism could give cradles to the grave security? That alone would leave man as lost as the ant in a concrete hill.

A republic of free men is based on the premise that the individual can build his own castle at his own risk instead of living in a cubicle provided by the state. With incentive as an urge to produce, man pushed himself to the highest standard of living.

The energy of man must find an outlet in building, as much as the ant. The creative spirit cannot be static.

From the Harvard Herald, Harvard, Illinois: It has been observed that the possibility of soaking the rich to pay the cost of government went out with prohibition and Empress Eugenie hats.

If the federal government took every nickel of individual taxable income above $4,000, it would get only a fifth of what it is spending each year.

Economic Highlights . . .

Happenings That Affect the Future of Every Individual — National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare.

As a general principle, practically everyone agrees that there is no such thing as an indispensable man. As a practical matter, however, any GOP political strategist, in a frank mood, would tell you that there is one man who comes mighty close to being indispensable and his name is Dwight D. Eisenhower.

All kinds of polls and surveys and studies have been made in preparation for the crucial 1956 general election. Most, if not all, have come to the same conclusions. One conclusion is that President Eisenhower, the individual, is far more popular than the Republican Party, the institution. Another is that, as of now, at any rate, he could defeat any potential Democrat candidate in pretty much of a walk. A third is that no other Republican in the public eye have anything resembling the President's popular standing. It is not an exaggeration to say that many of the experienced political observers are convinced that without Eisenhower there will be a Democratic sweep next year — while, with Eisenhower, the Republicans will certainly keep the President and very possibly regain control of Congress.

The opinion is general that, even though it may go against his personal desires, the President will run. The Democratic leadership believed that. Its present strategy, therefore, is inevitably devoted to seeking issues that are not only anti-Republican, but which will undermine the President's personal popularity and weaken public confidence in his policies and his ability.

HICKORY GROVE

I been growin' again is my dictionary — just about my favorite book, maybe next to Al Capone and not even into the "M" section. Run across "manners." And sisters and brothers, any essayist — had of worse or who who could not come up with 200 words on the subject, should get out of the business.

"Good manners" is "distinguished deportment." The country is full of good people with good manners but the ill-mannered ones who curse the soup are the problem. And the first place to look is in the nursery where little Bill and little Jimmy are reciting their new surroundings and right here is where mama and papa should lay aside Mr. Freud's couches and pick up a timber stick, not too timber — and set aside at least 14 years for each effectively bringing up. You don't instill good manners — Jimmy type in your little pride and joy by fanning out the job to society. The baby sister takes the short cut — anything for peace and quiet to teach with good manners.

And along with the subject of manners (I did in definitely with some deficiency books. Our new president George Harry — swing a haymaker recently when he laid deficiency square to the parents' doorstep. Imagine such a thug — me and Uncle Harry in agreement. Wonder don't care.

Years with the low down,

BETHEL MIDGET BALL CLUBS ENJOY BANQUET

Last Friday evening, the Bethel Midget Ball Clubs enjoyed a steaks banquet at the Congregational Church dining room. This was also to honor the Bethel team's championship in the Junior Pine Tree League, 1955.

The dining room was decorated in fall colors with baseball caps, bats and balls as centerpieces on the tables. Banners for each team in the Bethel Club, the Junior Pine Tree League Team, Red Sox and Braves, were hanging over the tables to designate each team's place, with the champions at the head table. Certificate of Awards, awarded to each member of all three teams, were used as place cards. Eight members of the Yankees, the young beginners of the club, were also present.

A banquet dinner of steak, mashed potatoes, carrots, hot rolls, fruit salad, apples pie and ice cream, chocolate milk and coffee was served. Mrs. Paul King entertained the boys on her accordion, and the boys joined her with singing.

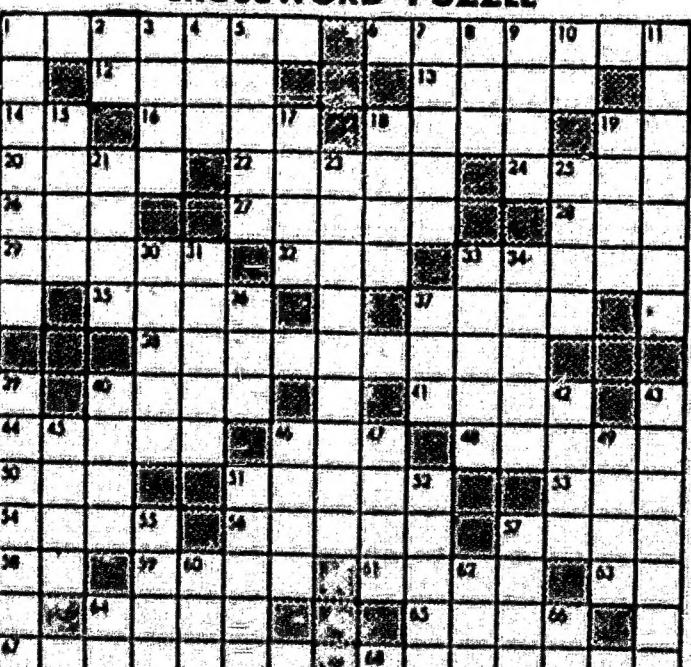

Harlan Hutchins, master of ceremonies, spoke to the boys on the baseball season and expressed his appreciation of the work and cooperation done by the coaches and managers with the boys this summer. He spoke, especially of Bud and Shirley Clough and called them "Mr. and Mrs. Baseball" for their untiring efforts to promote boys' baseball for Bethel. He called on them to make a surprise announcement. They, then, presented to the championship team a trophy given by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. In behalf of Fred Wight of Norway, Commissioner of the Oxford County Baseball League, and who was unable to be present, Donald Christie, told the boys about a trophy which will be given to them from the Oxford League. These trophies are to be on display at Spec's Barber Shop at a later date and thereafter, permanently displayed at the Crescent Park School. The champions will also receive green and white jacket emblems from the Bethel Club. Bud Clough thanked his coaches for their support, and also the parents who had worked "behind the scenes" to help forward the baseball program this summer.

Those present from the Junior Pine Tree League were: Manager, Paul King; Players — Richard Roberts, Teddy White, Jerry Smith, Richard Saunders, Kenneth Roberts, Melvin Jodrey, Albert Sumner, Robert Felt, David Salway, David Myers, Joe Shaw, Douglas Rice, Dana Bean, Malcolm Bennett, Kennard Bennett, Donald Angevine, Edward Rice, and Jimmy Bartlett. Coaches — Addison Saunders and Edward Wheeler were unable to be present.

The Red Sox team present were: Manager, Bud Clough; Coach, Harold Young; Players — Jeff Hutchins, Donald Rice, Nelson Smith, Emerson Merrill, Peter Davis, Richard York, Steve Saunders, Burnie Rice, John Howe, Billy Roberts, Beth Ann Brown, Coach Clarence Remington, and players, Fredy DeLoach, Clarence Remington, Donald Baker and Peter McWilliams were unable to be present. The Braves present were: Manager, — E. Thompson.

Great trials seem to be necessary preparations for great duels. — E. Thompson

Conservation Farming
In Oxford County— by Douglas L. Marston
Soil Conservation Service

The Supervisors of the Oxford County Soil Conservation have received the new tree planter that was ordered earlier in the fall. The planter was shipped from Illinois and arrived in South Paris last Wednesday. The Supervisors, the Forest Ranger and myself are all greatly impressed with this new planter and we feel that it will be of considerable help in getting a larger number of trees planted in the County. This new machine is considerably heavier than our present model and will be used in the more difficult planting sites. We hope to have a series of demonstrations this fall so that more of you may have an opportunity to see the planter in operation.

There is a good supply of trees at the State Nursery in Orono and those interested in tree planting should contact the Forester, Mr. Summer Burgess, of Dixfield, or the Soil Conservation office at South Paris, if you are interested in planting trees this fall, or next spring.

TODAY'S meditation

The Upper Room
THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, September 29

Head John 15:12-17.

Henceforth I call you not servants...but I have called you friends. (John 15:15)

ONE day a little girl, well known to me, invited a friend into her home to play. Looking at a picture on the wall, the small visitor asked, "Who is the person in the picture?"

"That is Jesus" came the reply.

"Do you know Him?" asked the visitor.

"No," said the small hostess, "but my father does, my father is a personal friend of His."

Christ is not merely a figure of past history. True He walked through the fields of Galilee and the streets of Jerusalem long ago. He was a good man who lived and died in the ancient world. He is also the living Christ of today, an unfailing friend and constant companion with whom we may walk in fellowship and in whose strength we may face each day.

He does not like us out of life, remove our burdens or deliver us from the experience of death. He shares with us our life of inspirations, burdens, joys, and sorrows.

In love He goes with us and gives His sure help. We are not alone. He is our available friend.

Prayer

Our Father, increase our response of faith. Quicken the surrender of our wills. Give us open hearts of love that we may know the friendship of Thy Son, our friend, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Thought For The Day

Christianity is the gift of friendship in which Christ is both the giver and the gift.—Lynn Williams (Australia)

TAXPAYERS URGED TO KEEP EXEMPTIONS RECORDS

CURRENT

Taxpayers subject to withholding tax should be careful that their exemption records are current. District Director Whitney L. Wheeler of the Augusta office of the Internal Revenue Service has warned. One of the common difficulties experienced by the service is straightening out erroneous withholding tax certificates.

Keeping one's employer posted concerning exemption status benefits both the employer and revenue service, Mr. Wheeler pointed out. It enables the employer to maintain accurate records in both his own bookkeeping accounts and in his payment of these taxes to the service. The revenue service is entitled to make more quickly accurate analysis of the taxpayer's return.

If a taxpayer's exemptions have changed, he should obtain at once a new certificate (Form W-2), fill it out and return to his employer. This should be done immediately, especially when dependency changes have an application to the current year.

Such factors as marriage, divorce, the birth of a child or assumption of the support of a dependent dependent may alter an individual's tax status.

Taxpayers who find that their

The 10 Commandments of Safety

- 1 Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun. This is the first rule of gun safety.
- 2 Guns carried into camp or home, or when otherwise not in use, must always be unloaded, and taken down or have actions open; guns always should be carried in cases to the shooting area.
- 3 Always be sure barrel and action are clear of obstructions, and that you have only ammunition of the proper size for the gun you are carrying. Remove oil and grease from chamber before firing.
- 4 Always carry your gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle, even if you stumble; keep the safety on until you are ready to shoot.
- 5 Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger; know the identifying features of the game you intend to hunt.
- 6 Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot; avoid all horseplay while handling a gun.
- 7 Unattended guns should be unloaded; guns and ammunition should be stored separately beyond reach of children and careless adults.
- 8 Never climb a tree or fence or jump a ditch with a loaded gun; never pull a gun toward you by the muzzle.
- 9 Never shoot a bullet at a flat, hard surface or the surface of water; when at target practice, be sure your backstop is adequate.
- 10 Avoid alcoholic drinks before or during shooting.

WORTH REPEATING

In 1935 a U. S. farmer turned out enough food to support ten people. This produces sufficient to support 100 million. The figures could be applied to many types of machines... Our farms must get to the point where they look like factories, but if we can't do it and mechanizing trends, their present pace, they in fact one day be far behind us.
